Geenens Disciplinary Hearing Begins July 13

The Kansas State Board of Healing Arts announces that a disciplinary hearing on the license of Douglas Geenens, D.O., Overland Park will be held beginning July 13 at the Office of Administrative Hearings, 1020 S. Kansas Ave. The hearing will begin at 9 a.m. and is scheduled for five days.

The disciplinary petition filed alleges 23 violations of statutes including violations in standards of care, violations in prescribing and dispensing of prescription drugs and boundary issues.

Following the conclusion of this hearing, the presiding officer will have 30 days to issue an initial order. That initial order will then be reviewed by the Board, who will then issue a final order regarding whether or not to take disciplinary action against Dr. Geenens.

Dr. Geenens license is currently active and he has had a Kansas license since 1989.

The Board has appointed outside counsel to this case and it is being represented by McLeod & Heinrichs law firm in Kansas City, Missouri.

A copy of the petition is attached.
