FINAL ORDER

NOW this February 19, 2010 the above captioned matter comes before the Kansas State Board of Healing Arts (“Board”) on the Motion of the respondent to Lift Probation. The petitioner appears by and through Kelli Stevens, Litigation Counsel. The respondent appears by and through Matthew P. Sorochty. There are no other appearances. The Board, after hearing the statements of counsel, having reviewed the file and being duly apprised of the Premises finds and concludes as follows:

1. The members of the disciplinary panel, consisting of Drs. Counselman, Leinwetter and Templeton, recuse themselves from proceedings in this matter. Dr. Soria recuses herself from hearing this matter
2. On December 21, 2009 the Board filed a Consent Order on probation for one year.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The respondent had contracted with the TriCare network to provide patient services to TriCare’s insureds.
2. The TriCare network has cancelled its contract with the respondent because of the term “probation” was part of the Board’s Order.

3. The respondent has been disqualified from seeing patients who are insured by the TriCare network because of the term “probation” in the Board’s Order.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The respondent shall remain on probation.
2. The respondent shall abide by the remaining terms of the Final Order dated October 1, 2009.

The respondent’s Motion to Lift Probation is hereby DENIED. The respondent shall follow the remaining terms of the Final Order dated December 29, 2009.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that this is a final order. A final order is effective upon service. A party to an agency proceeding may seek judicial review of a final order by filing a petition in the District Court as authorized by K.S.A. 77-601, et seq. Reconsideration of a final order is not a prerequisite to judicial review. A petition for judicial review is not timely unless filed within 30 days following service of the final order. A copy of any petition for judicial review must be served upon Kathleen Selzler Lippert, the Board’s Acting Executive Director, at 235 SW Topeka Blvd., Topeka, KS 66603.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATE: February 26, 2010.
