ORDER ON RECONSIDERATION

NOW ON THIS Seventeenth Day of August 2002, this matter comes before the Board upon Licensee's motion for reconsideration of the Final Order dated June 10, 2002, which denied termination of the limitations arising out of the Stipulation and Agreement and Enforcement Order dated October 16, 2000. Licensee appears in person and through Reid Holbrook and Timothy McConville, Holbrook and Osborn, P.A. Kelli J. Benintendi, Associate Counsel, appears for the Board.

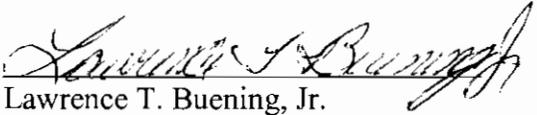

After hearing the statements of the parties, the Board finds and concludes that the request for reconsideration should be denied. The Board further finds that the October 16, 2000 agreement provides that Licensee may request termination of the conditions ordered in the agreement after two years following approval of the agreement. That agreement contemplates an appearance by Licensee before the Board prior to its termination. The Board finds, concludes and orders that the conditions on Licensee's license stated in the agreement should be terminated without further proceedings after October 15, 2002.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that Licensee's motion for reconsideration of the June 10, 2002 is denied.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the conditions on Licensee's license arising out of the Stipulation and Agreement and Enforcement Order dated October 16, 2000 shall terminate without further proceedings after October 15, 2002.

Dated this 22nd Day of August 2002.
