Case No. 94-00124

FINAL ORDER

NOW ON THIS Sixth Day of December, 1997, comes before the State Board of Healing Arts Respondent's Petition for Review and Petitioner's Motion for Determination and Assessment of Costs. Kenneth J. Reilly, Attorney at Law, appears for Respondent. Kevin K. LaChance, Disciplinary Counsel, appears for the Board. After hearing the arguments of counsel, the Board orders as follows:

1. The findings of fact and conclusions of law stated in the Initial Order are adopted as the findings and conclusions of the Board as its Final Order, except that Conclusion of Law number 4 of the Initial Order is modified to vacate the imposition of the administrative fine. For the reasons stated in the Initial Order, Respondent's license to practice the healing arts is hereby revoked.

2. The costs of the action are assessed against Respondent in the amount of $1662.00, payable upon the effective date of this order.

3. This is a Final Order. It is effective upon service. A party may seek judicial review of a Final Order by filing a petition for judicial review in the district court. A petition for judicial review is not timely unless filed within thirty days following service of the Final Order. A petition for reconsideration is not a prerequisite to seeking judicial review. However, a party may file a petition with the Board seeking reconsideration within 15 days following service of the Final Order.

DATED THIS 10th Day of December, 1997.
